Westmont, Ill. - DATAIR is pleased to announce that Sam Venouziou has passed his actuarial exams and has been approved by the Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries to perform actuarial services. Sam graduated from DeVry University with a major in computer science. Since graduation, Sam has worked at DATAIR, first in programming and then moving into Defined Benefit Support where he has been assisting clients and has also presented at Cash Balance seminars.

Aaron Venouziou, president of DATAIR, said this is very exciting, and with Sam becoming an EA, that brings to four the number of Enrolled Actuaries at DATAIR available to assist our clients with their support needs.
